

THE ECHO

Dear Frankie:

I've really enjoyed all
the good times we've had together. Just keep on blossoming, and maybe someday you'll
catch a few!

Always stay as sweet
as you are now! Best of luck always!

A friend always,
Judy Kennedy

The Echo

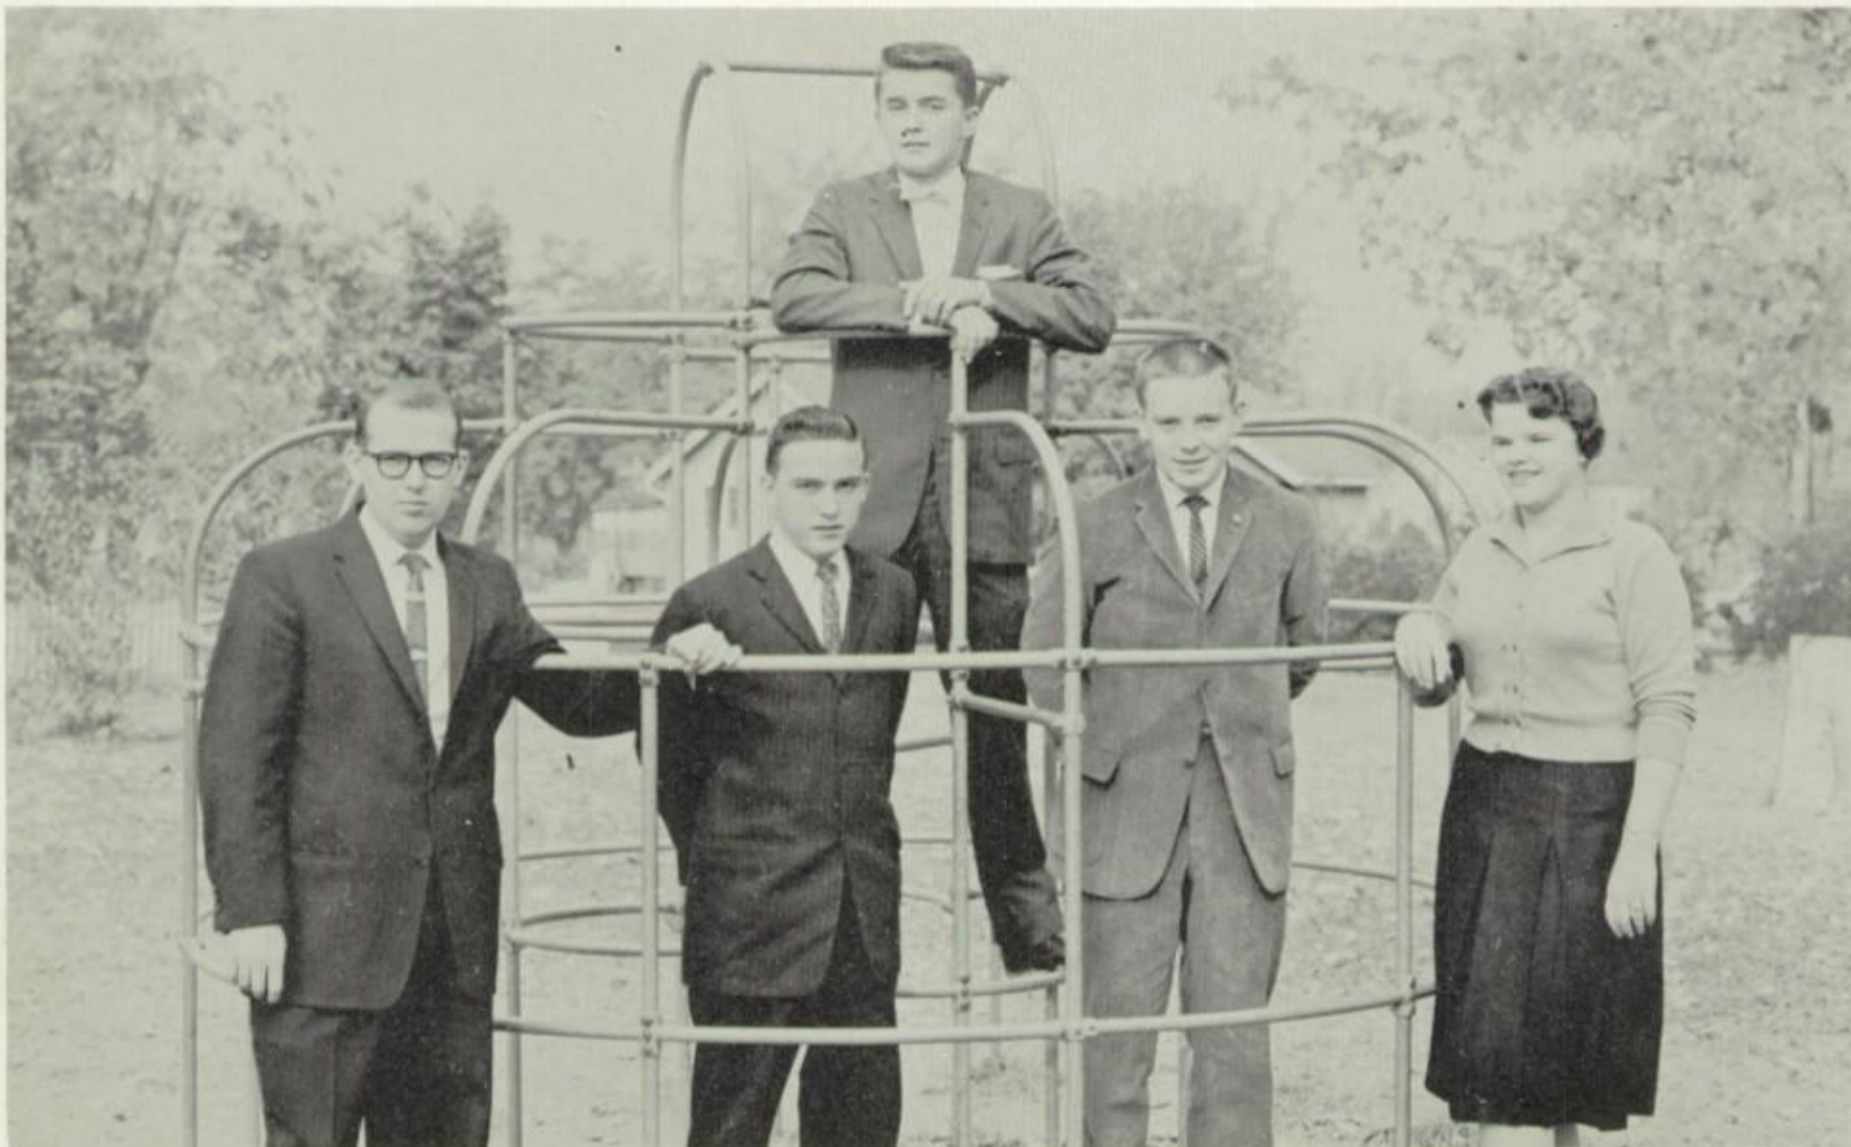

David H. Ruby, Editor

We the members of the National Honor Society of Carthage High School, wish to dedicate our 1961 yearbook to Mr. John Rhoades. Working diligently and congenially with every member of the staff, he has helped to make possible this first edition of the Echo.

Labor Omnia Vicit!

Work conquers all! These four studious like Latin students are demonstrating how they are learning the real meaning of work as they have been putting a dent in the chalk supply.

Explain Muscle Shoals

Mr. Gardner, history teacher, perhaps wonders if Glen Smith still thinks that Muscle Shoals is a prize fighter. Here, Senior government students ponder the Judiciary Department.

And I Quote . . .

David Ruby employs an emphatic device to capture the attention of his audience in first semester speech. Speech was added to the curriculum this year, offering the combined study of public speaking and dramatic art. A three act play was produced in the second semester.

Eureka, We've Found It!!

New discovery? Maybe, but more likely it's just another common experiment in Mr. Howell's chemistry class.

Pictured are: Ron Fannin, Mr. Howell, Tom Tucker, Larry Fenner, Sue Siler, Linda Harrold, Kathy Geise.

Three Ways to Squash An Orange

This advanced home economics class of the Carthage High School is demonstrating the many new ways of cooking techniques.

The Many Uses of a Fig Leaf

Actually, students are looking over leaf collections, which are a project of the freshman biology class.

Identified Left To Right are: Carolyn Bell, Patty Tribby, Steven Marshall, Mr. Montgomery, Dianna Gross, Eldon Jackson, and Patty Gibson.

Hunt and Peck

a;sldkfjghfjdksla;sldkfjghfjdksla;
Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their country.

Typing students Left To Right are: Linda Myers, Kay Addison, Jane Hunt, Susie Sandefur, Janet French, and Miss McMahel, teacher.

A Necessary Evil

Reluctantly the pupils attempt to study as Mr. Taylor stands guard. It seems that they are better actors than students.

The Hub

An efficient office staff keeps the organizational wheels turning. Resting before the onslaught of excuses, absence slips, late slips, and phone calls and posing are: Seniors, Dean Gardner and Kay Addison, Secretary, Gloria Plank, and Mr. Brenton, Principal.

Art for Art's Sake

Mr. Brekken shows some of his art classes' Halloween pictures to his Sophomore world history class.

The Wood Goes Round and Round

One of the many skills taught in the industrial arts classes is the use of the lathe. In this picture Steve Marshall, under Mr. Leavitt's guidance, shows us how it's done.

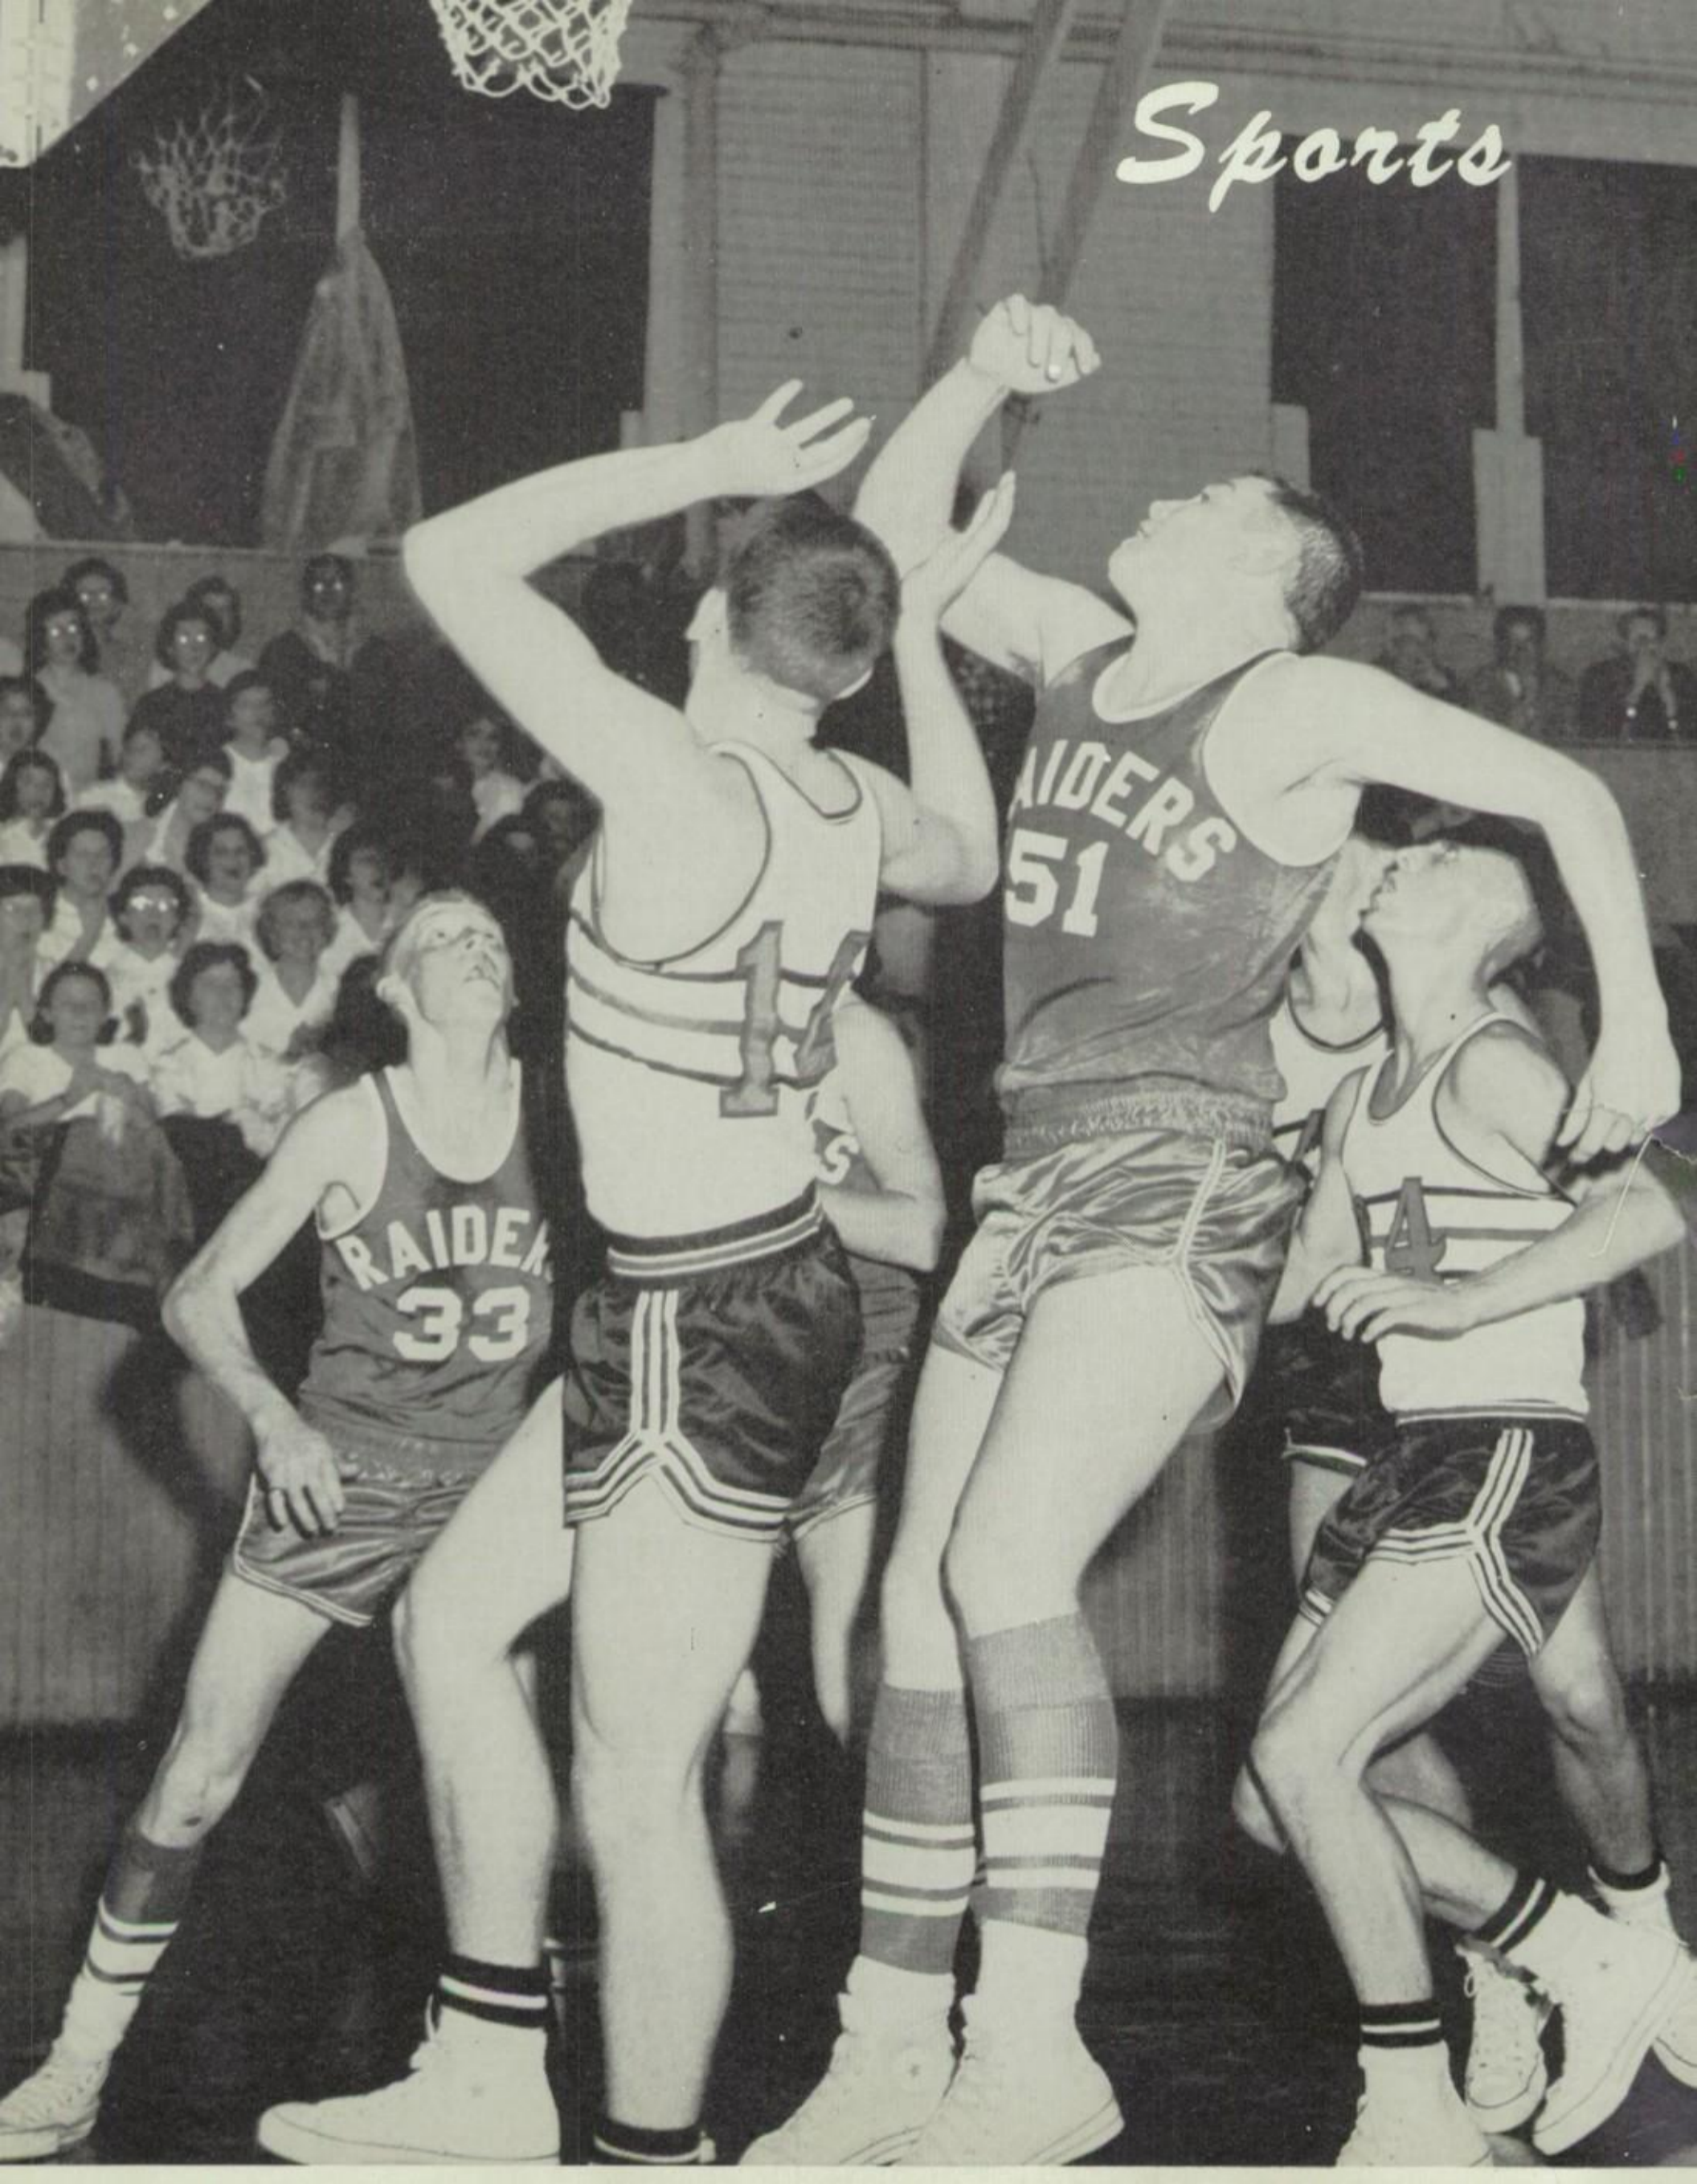

What Goes Up Must Come Down

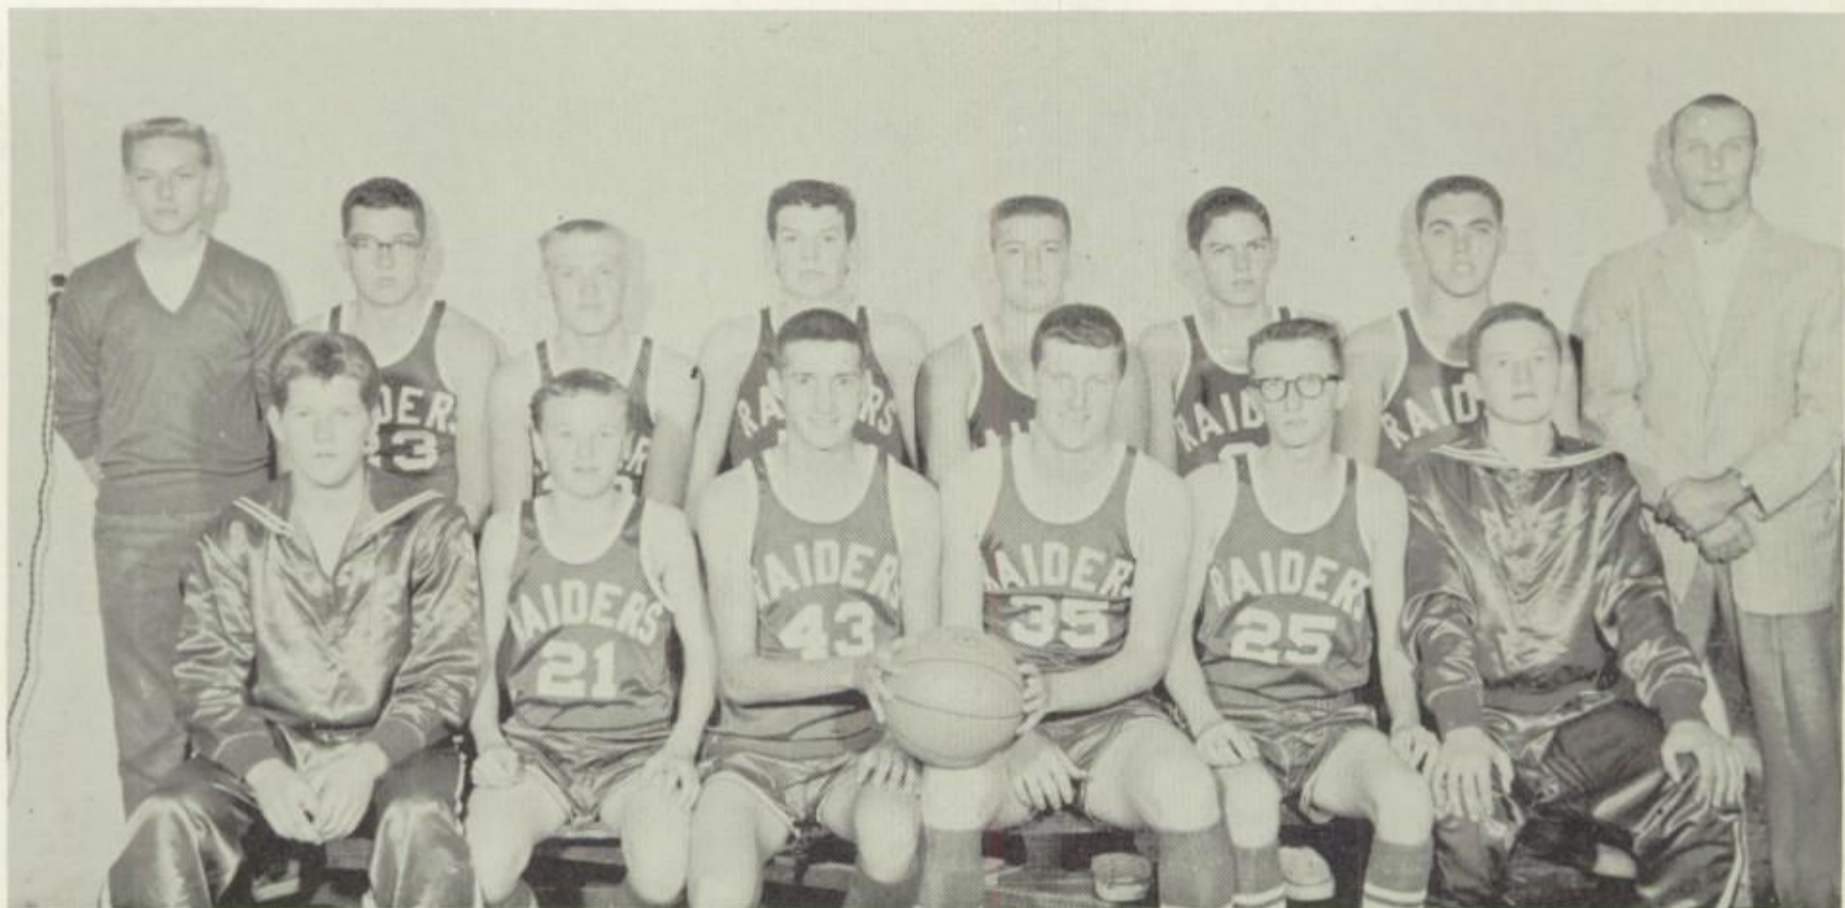

Those Egyptians had nothing on us when it comes to building pyramids. Mrs. Lord's physical education class displays a tumbling specialty.

CHEERLEADERS: The four girls who have done a wonderful job in keeping up the school spirit this year are Marilyn Pitts, Mardell Wrightsman, Susie Sandefur, and Jane Hunt.

THE SENIOR FLOAT placed first in the class floats division. The Seniors did a very nice job of decorating their float with the colors of ice-blue and white. The theme of the Senior float was "We've Built Our Stairway to the Stars." Judy Harrold, Senior Queen, rides on the top step. Janet French rides on the middle step, and Susie Sandefur rides on the bottom step.

THE JUNIOR FLOAT placed second in the class floats competition. The Juniors did a beautiful job as they designed their float in a bright pink and white. Brightly colored flowers added to the beauty of this float. The theme of the float was a beauty pageant with their entry being "Miss Junior Class." Diane Clark, Junior Queen, sits at the top of the stairs. Janice Johnson is at the right, and Joan Whitfield is at the left.

SOPHOMORES, ranked third in the class floats with a blue and white float showing Queen Beckey Johnson on top of the world. Attendants Sheila DeWitt and Linda Harrold are seated near stars. Their slogan was "Stay on Top with the Sophomores."

FRESHMEN, honored Queen Cindy Brooks with their slogan "She Is Our Cindy-rella." Cindy, in a red gown, sat in a white, crepe paper slipper with attendants Trish Sipes and Dianna Gross seated at her feet.

QUEEN: Miss Diane Clark, who is a junior, was elected queen of the Fall Festival this year. She was crowned at the dance on Saturday night.

QUEEN CANDIDATES: The other queen candidates for the Fall Festival were: Becky Johnson, sophomore, Judy Harrold, senior, and Cindy Brooks, freshman.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA: Left To Right; J. Terhune, S. Todd, C. Magee, C. Miller, M. Finch, S. Skinner, R. Fannin, L.M. Heim, J. Petry. ROW TWO: L. Harrold, S. Mosier, B. Roberts, C. Carver, P. Tipton, P. Finch, R. Henley, M. Heim. ROW THREE: S. Leisure, D. Carroll, P. Clark, L. Foust, P. Hunt, K. Petry, B. Logan and Miss McMabel, sponsor.

STUDENT LIBRARIANS

CAFETERIA HELP

Students work with the cooks to keep the cafeteria clean and get the food to the hungry mouths of waiting students everyday. Pictured in the act are: Mrs. Joan Jackson, Roaslee Howard, Betty Conley, Mrs. Beulah Stevens, Carolyn Bell, Mike Lafuse, Dale Rodmaker.
